

Ardmore Bench By Bernhardt

VOYAGER

"Contemporary design with a mid-century modern twist."

A contemporary design with rustic tones, the Ardmore bench lends sleek style to any space. Channel tufting on the seat gives a mid-century modern twist to traditional tufting. The horizontal channeling creates depth and highlights the rich texture of the leather while adding clean, modern lines to the piece. For a touch of industrial chic, the stainless steel base features exposed fasteners.
