Panis Ottoman By Amura

VOYAGER

"Swift and Essential Lines"

Heritage is a concept that, in Altamura, is closely identified with the warm fragrance of a large loaf of bread, inviting to conviviality. And it's to this very millennia-old tradition and to its land of origin that Amura wants to pay homage with its new PANIS Collection. The essence of the project is told by the ottomans, where the hint to the cuts traditionally applied on the dough is evident the most. The swift and essential lines, though never severe, hint back at the stamps traditionally used by each Altamura family to mark their own loafs, some fascinating hand-carved wooden artefacts with hints at an evident link between design, nature and ancestral
